

SCU UAP Report Submission Terms and Conditions (Version 20211128_01)

By submitting my UAP report and any accompanying media to the SCU (dba The Scientific Coalition for UAP Studies) via the SCU website or any other means, I understand that I am solely responsible for the content of my submissions. I represent that I have all necessary rights to this content and that I am not infringing or violating any third party's rights by submitting it to SCU. This content does not contain U.S. government information considered classified, controlled-unclassified, or information exempt from FOIA requests.

Additionally, by submitting my UAP report along with photo(s), video(s), audio, and/or any other types of evidence to SCU, I grant SCU, its agents, employees and assigns, a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, irrevocable, sub-licensable, perpetual license to use, display, edit, modify, reproduce, distribute, store, and prepare derivative works of My Content for all purposes that SCU deems appropriate to further its mission, including but not limited to, the following: scientific reports; use in all print media; use in all broadcast and/or digital media; website use; press releases; and any other lawful use of said information which SCU sees fit. I hereby waive and release any claims or actions against SCU for use of the information and/or media that I/we have provided and agree to hold SCU harmless for any injury or harm resulting or arising from any use by SCU of said information and/or media. I agree not to assert any moral rights or rights of publicity against SCU for using My Content. I also recognize SCU's legitimate interest in using it, in accordance with the scope of this license, to the extent My Content contains any personal information.
